ADVERTISING
Has created many a new business;
Has enlarged many an old business;
Has revived many a dull business;
Has rescued many a lost business;
Has saved many a failing business;
Has preserved many a large business;
And insures success in any business

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the best, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that otherwise would have been lost."

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.
KEEP YOUR NAME BEFORE THE PUBLIC
JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING INSURES A FORTUNE
IF BUSINESS IS DULL, ADVERTISE.
IF BUSINESS IS BRISK, ADVERTISE.
The man who didn't believe in advertising has gone into partnership with the sheriff, and the sheriff does the advertising. jy10dSm

Mr Samuel Case, one of the Peace Commissioners, arrived at Salem on Saturday, the Commission having gone to pieces His account of the negotiations is interesting and graphic

The work of repairing the damage to the Coos Bay road, by the storms of last Winter, will soon be commenced, A line of stages will be put on from Roseburg as soon as the road is made practicable

The father of young Goodhue, sent to the East Portland Insane Asylum, from Linn county, a few days ago, is said to be in the Asylum at Steilacoom. The misfortune of insanity appears to be hereditary in the family.

The Dalles Mountaineer of the 15th says: As the river is coming up rapidly, the wood men are getting anxious to get their wood on the beach out of the way. One day this week a large lot of fir wood was purchased at $3 50 per cord—the price has been $4 50 and $5 heretofore.

The State Journal says "The Messrs. Packard are engaged in getting out on the Middle Fork several hundred thousand feet of sugar pine logs for the Springfield mill They peel the logs on the ground so as to make them easier handled and run This will, perhaps, be the best lot of logs ever got out in Oregon.

The farmers in the vicinity of Hubbard and Aurora, Marion county, have held one or two preliminary meetings with the view of organizing a Farmers' Club for mutual improvement in that calling which the "little boy with the hatchet," who was afterwards the father of his country, called the "noblest employment of man."

The farmers of Springfield precinct met at Springfield March 8th and organized a Farmers' Club by electing officers and adopting rules for the government of the Society G H. Armitage, J. E P. It speaks well for Marion county that during the term of court just closed, only two indictments were found by the grand jury Only one of the parties was convicted—Frank Brown, who was found in a student's house near the University, trying on a coat. The other was Thomas Henry, the man found in a saloon one night The evidence showed that he was in such a state as to be nearly or quite unconscious of what he was about, or where he was.

The Probate Court of Klickitat county, W T, at its special term last week, cited the county to appear and defend the contest for county seat The county appeared and filed a motion to demur from being made the defendant in the action, which, however, was overruled by the court, whereupon the county withdrew and the trial proceeded ex parte and the decision of the Court was, that the County Commissioners be and are hereby ordered to remove the county seat, Rockland, to Goldendale, within two days.

A friend at Hubbard, Marion county, writes that on the 8th inst a very interesting public exhibition was given by the scholars of the District School at that place assisted by amateurs in the histrionic and musical art, of the neighborhood The instrumental part of the music was furnished by Dr Finck of Aurora His daughters and Misses Mary and Annie Case, sang several quartettes, duets and solos, which were well received The other exercises by the School were also highly creditable to the performers, as well as the teacher, Mr Johnson

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 16.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Nominations

WASHINGTON, March 14 —The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to day David Noggle, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho, W Brookings Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho, H S Hinson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico J W Kingman Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Wyoming, Thos A Spencer Assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department, W J Small, for Register of the Landoffice at Linkville, Oregon

There is no truth in the report that a change is to be made in the Attorneyship at San Francisco and there is no probability of a change of Mint officers before the expiration of the present terms The President positively says he contemplates no change in the Collectorship of the port of San Francisco There is a probability that Coey will be appointed Postmaster of San Francisco His nomination was sent to the Senate four years ago and failed confirmation The President recently expressed his confidence in that gentleman and his fitness for the position David J Williamson, Consul at Callao, seeks to be transferred to the Hongkong Consulate Senators Stewart and Sargent wish to retain DeLong in the Japanese Mission They argue that he has been a good officer, and that his peculiar intimacy with the relations between Japan and the Pacific States, renders it desirable that he should be retained It is said here among the friends of DeLong that he will resign in preference to being recalled, if this should be indicated by the President

Boutwell has not yet resigned and the President has not decided on his successor He said to night he will not determine on one before Monday.

About to be Born.

NEW YORK, March 15 —A Washington special says it is rumored that our Government is to take steps to establish a new State on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, with San Luis as its Capital The project was first conceived by Gen Shields

EASTERN STATES.

New Hampshire Election.

CONCORD March 14 —Returns from the last towns in the Second Congressional District increase Pike's majority to 10 Returns on the vote for Governor, which have lately come in, show a much larger scattering vote than has been reported The election is close and the choice by the people is considered doubtful

From Boston.

BOSTON, March 14 —A full bench of the Supreme Judicial Court has decided that the act of the Legislature authorizing the city of Boston to issue $20,000,000 in five per cent. bonds is unconstitutional, the expenditures authorized by the statute being for private and not for public objects

Vessel and Cargo Lost.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14 —The British ship John Parker, hence Friday for Liverpool, with 3 513 bales of cotton, 6,000 staves and 2,000 sacks oil cake, took fire this morning and was scuttled and sunk on the flats at Southwest Pass

Escape of Prisoners

AUBURN N Y March 15 —Four prisoners escaped from the county jail last evening by knocking down the jailer while he was about to lock them up for the night The jailer was seriously injured

Foster to be Executed.

NEW YORK, March 14 —The Private Secretary of Governor Dix announced to the Sheriff to-day that the Governor had written a letter to Dr. Tyng, saying that public safety and justice demanded the execution of Foster The Deputy Sheriffs are now guarding him in the Tombs.

NEW YORK, March 15 —When the Governor's decision was first intimated to Foster yesterday, he manifested no agitation, but remained silent. He said, however, he did not credit reports, as he had not heard from Dr. Tyng, to whom the Governor had written The Governor's notice to the Sheriff was informal, but the official papers were delivered in the course of the day. In many quarters the Governor's decision creates surprise, as it was thought the sentence would be commuted The statement that money was used to influence Mrs. Putnam in writing her letter to the Governor, is now denied by the person with whom it is reported to have originated.

Olney, who was tried at Port Townsend last week for the murder of Boyart, was acquitted on the ground of insanity.

John Crichton, of Seattle, had his finger blown off by the accidental discharge of a derringer which he was carelessly handling, last week.

Between the irregularities of the boats and land slides on the railroad, the people on Puget Sound have cause for a great complaint about the irregularity of the mails.

The mail steamer Blakely, on March 3d, when six miles out from Port Townsend, encountered a storm by which she lost her smoke stack and was delayed two days on the trip.

At last accounts Col. Milroy, of the Chehalis Reservation, was not expected to live. His injuries, which were caused by striking his foot on a sharp ax a few days ago, have proved more serious than was anticipated.

The Olympia Tribune of the 11th says: "It is reported to us that the Chehalis river, yesterday morning, had risen twenty-five feet above low water mark, and this morning must surely have been even higher. We look for accounts of inundations and washings away from all the river bottoms. Such an immense rainfall as we have had lately is enough to make the salt water rise, too."

The Lewiston, I. T., Signal says: By a citizen of Lapwai we are informed that a buglary was committed there on the night of the 23d, by which the Quartermaster's Department suffered to the amount of three or four hundred dollars. We have not been able to learn any further particulars than that the storehouse was broken into and robbed of several boxes of tobacco and other stores.

The Port Townsend Argus of the 7th says: "Many persons have expressed the belief that the United States mail service on Puget Sound will peter out altogether, it has already become a weekly affair. The Baron furnishes the following: By latest dispatches received we understand that it is proposed that hereafter the females carry the mails on Puget Sound The service will doubtless be better performed."

A project is on foot at Olympia to put a 1,200 ton steamer on the route between that place and San Francisco. It is proposed to organize among the business men on the Sound a company with a paid up stock of 750 shares at $100 each, a portion of which will be used in the purchase of a steamer suitable for this trade, or run entirely, or in great part, by Puget Sound interest, carrying merchandise up, delivering the same at its destination and taking coal and merchandise down.

The Olympia Courier of the 12th inst. says: We learn from Mr. Brannan, of the North Pacific, that the ship Warhawk, Capt. White, arrived at Port Discovery Sunday night, where she will load with lumber; the ship Shirley, Capt Mathews, arrived at Tacoma Monday for lumber; bark Florence, Capt. Arey, arrived at Port Blakely Monday for lumber; barkentine Emma Augusta, arrived at Seattle Monday for lumber; bark Osmyn, Capt. Ravello, arrived at same place and time for coal, bark Coquimbo, Capt. Arey, and brig Deacon, Capt Reid, arrived at Port Madison Monday for lumber. The ship Elizabeth Kimball, Capt. Kellar, is expected to sail to day from Port Gamble for Peru, loaded with lumber.

The Seattle Intelligencer of the 10th, has the following The schooner Nelly Martin, which had been for a long time past lying at this port while being thoroughly refitted and repaired, sailed on Saturday night last on a trading cruise along the Northwest coast She will visit all the Alaskan ports from Tongas to Cook's Inlet, the latter point being some four or five hundred miles beyond Sitka It is the intention of her commander, Capt Stevens, to be absent on this cruise for a period of some six months He also informs us that he will use his best endeavors to ascertain from the Indian tribes in the vicinity of where the steamer Geo S Wright was wrecked, whether any of the passengers or crew of that ill fated vessel escaped from the wreck, and are among them as prisoners or otherwise He is acquainted with all the tribes along the coast, and understands their dialects, and feels sanguine that if there are any survivors from the lost steamer, he can obtain information from the Indians as to their whereabouts and succeed in their recovery.

The Seattle Intelligencer says "There are pretty well authenticated rumors current up the Sound to the effect that Jay Cooke, President Cass and a large minority of the Board of Directors of the railroad company, are opposed to the arrangement that was reported to have been made by which the Puget Sound Land Company were to have the privilege of selecting a terminus for speculative purposes on the Sound, in consideration of their building about 300 miles of the western end of the road and taking their pay in rail road bonds, and that they have determined to dissolve their connection with the company if the schemes of that Mobilier Credit ring is successfully carried through against their protests From this we infer there is good reason to believe the Land Ring, who have all along been instrumental in delaying the location of the road and selection of a terminus, may yet be thwarted in the accomplishment of their selfish purposes, and that the speedy building of the road and the selection of the proper and most suitable place for a terminus on this end of the route will no longer be made dependent on the penny wise and pound foolish policy of some of the managers of the corporation, who seem to disregard the purpose for which this great enterprise was committed to their trust, and whose only object appears to be a determination to so manage as to realize speedy fortunes for themselves out of the construction of the road and the sale of town site and terminal property."

The Daily Oregonian

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 1[illegible]

The Railway Paper Gets Into Trouble Again

In last Saturday's [illegible] an effort is made to justify the extortionate freight tariffs on the Oregon railway on the ground that other things are proportionately higher in this country than in the East. If such is the fact the point may be considered well taken, if the necessaries of life are higher here than in the East in the same proportion it may be supposed that freight ought to be increased at least. That is the basis of the Bulletin's argument, and as we propose to examine its premises, we will assume for the present that if this is correct the conclusion logically follows.

Let us therefore compare the Eastern prices of some of the articles of prime necessity with Oregon prices and see how much higher the latter are than the former.

Take flour first as bread is the staff of life. Here are the Boston quotations:

Common extra $6 75@7 50; Minnesota and Milwaukie brands at $7 50@8 50; Ohio, Indiana and Michigan brands of white wheat flour at $8 50@10 50; St Louis at $9 25@12 25, and Southern family flour at $6 50@12 [illegible] bbl.

And here are the New York prices:

Superfine State $6 50@7 15; extra State, $7 50@8; choice State, $8@8 50; extra Minnesota $8 50@10 50; best Western brands, $10 50@11; choice Oregon $10 50.

Now look at the Oregon quotations:

Superfine $4; outside and country brands, $4 50@5; standard extra $5 50.

On meats the difference is not quite so great as in flour, but still Oregon is below the Eastern market. The Boston quotations are:

Mess Pork, 14@15; Beef (jobbing) $10@$11 50 for common; $13@14 for extra.

The New York prices are just about the same as those of Boston on beef, and a quarter of a cent lower on pork. It is well known that Oregon quotations are very much lower.

On sugar and coffee the Eastern and Oregon quotations are nearly identical.

Butter is quoted in the East at about 4 cents per pound below Portland prices.

These are specimens and it will be found by any person, who will take the pains to make a thorough comparison, that they fairly represent the difference between Oregon prices and Eastern prices of the articles of prime necessity. On some articles the Oregon prices are seen to be a trifle—say five per cent—higher than the Eastern, on others the prices are about the same here as in the East, while on others still—and especially on those that are absolutely necessary—the cost in Oregon is from thirty to fifty per cent less here than in the East. So it costs no more if indeed it does not cost less, to live in than in the East. The conclusion of the railway paper that the exorbitant freight charges on the Oregon roads are justifiable on account of the great cost of living in this country are incorrect, because the premise itself is untrue.

The latest Eastern papers received by the last steamer were those of the 26th of February, from New York, and the 25th from Boston. A Boston paper of the 3d of March—6 days later—which got into the letter mails by some means, reached us by the overland route from California on last Saturday. We cannot hope to receive any additional Eastern papers by sea till Tuesday night or Wednesday. Then we shall have files from Boston of the 26th of February, and thenceforward for eight or ten days. If the paper mails were sent overland from San Francisco, as they were until lately, we should receive to-day Boston papers of March 5th, and New York papers of the 6th, and before the steamer arrives we should have those of the 7th or 8th. Thus Oregon readers are required to wait from eight to ten days longer to get their news by sea than they would if the mails came by land. This ought not to be. The roads are now in such condition that there is no ground to apprehend delay in transmitting mails overland, and it is to be hoped, the reason for sending them by steamer having ceased, the practice will cease also at an early day.

There is an allusion in President Grant's inaugural which has proven extremely distasteful to certain journals in Berlin. It is the passage which contains these words: "It is my firm conviction that the civilized world is tending toward republicanism—government by the people through their chosen representatives, and our own great Republic is destined to be the guiding star to all others." Now, Germany is the last government under the heavens from which we would have expected so sharp a rebuke to our President's homely utterance. Had the Standard or the Telegraph, of London, made these words the occasion for a savage assault upon our sturdy republican institutions, their snarlings never could have disturbed Brother Jonathan's serenity. But hither comes the indignant protest of "several leading German newspapers," who with maxillaries all exposed in anthropophaginian ferocity, growl savagely—at an idea. How our Teutonic brethren could construe our national boast, so oft repeated and withal so familiar to European ears, as "an insult to monarchical States" is just a little beyond the comprehension of the average democratic intellect. We plead with the indignant Prussians, be they Volksblatt, Zeitung or what not, if we be not indulged in our national humor of self glorification, what under heaven is poor democracy to do in times of stagnant politics!

From time to time our dispatches make mention of the outbreaking in England of some feeling of discontent, which, because of a deficient political nomenclature, is conveniently termed 'Republican sentiment.' In Prussia, also the same signs of uneasiness are to be noted. It may not be generally known that in Europe there are now five Republics. Besides France, Switzerland and Spain, there is the quiet little Republic of San Marino which lies between [illegible] and Urbino. This unpretending State of but 10 000 inhabitants has withstood the attacks of kingcraft for centuries. Andorra, which nestles at the foot of the Pyrenees, is the fifth, and its birth time is far back in the first misty years of the Christian era.

Mr Gladstone recently announced to the House of Commons that Great Britain and America would join in presenting a handsome service of plate to the value of $6 000 to each of the members of the Geneva Arbitration, as a testimonial of their appreciation of the fidelity to important trusts which consummated the peaceful settlement of a grave international dispute. The announcement might have rested hard on Mr Disraeli, Mr Goldsmid and others who have magnified this measure into a national grievance to justify themselves in their assault on the Gladstone ministry, but there will be few Americans so infinitely small-minded as to begrudge this most fitting recognition of the services of the arbitrators.

The English Cabinet

The cable is a crafty orator of British intentions. We are continually hearing of what Granville will do if Czwirklowski's nasal appendage protrude too far into the tempting realms of Afghanistan or Schwelglups flushed with victory creep upward to the Baltic. And then Gladstone. What does this cable want us to believe about Gladstone? First we hear that the Premier announces to Her Majesty that the Ministry will retire because of the defeat on the Irish University bill. Then Disraeli receives a summons from the Queen to form a Cabinet. The retiring Premier hears of it and before Disraeli can get to Buckingham Palace Gladstone recants and starts to forestall Disraeli. Must it then degenerate into a political foot race between the Conservative and the Government? No, for Disraeli is 'mounted on a horse and is cheered loudly as he rides through Westminster Square.' Then Gladstone says he will appeal to the country and Disraeli begs time for consultation with his friends, several of whom are abroad, and Granville 'asks for an adjournment, which is agreed to.' Just at this point things are lubricated and they move on easier. Gladstone is not determined whether he will resign or appeal to the country. Again Disraeli is sent for. While he is putting on his pumps Gladstone slips up to the palace but before he gets there, Her Majesty 'requests Granville to form a new Cabinet and asks Gladstone to come and see her to-morrow,' and 'the morning journals contain no information of a more definite character.' Then Disraeli, arrived at terms of amity with his pumps, hastens to decline the office and the cable kindly informs us that "two plain reasons impel him thereto: 1st Gladstone; 2d Gladstone. 'Derby concurs.'" That leaves Derby and Granville and Gladstone to 'fight it out on that line' we have indicated, and brings us up to 12 o'clock last night, at which hour the Spectator thinks that 'Derby will take the Premiership, but says he is determined to appeal to the country.' We hope that Derby will do that thing. That's what we are going to do and if the country goes back on our statement of the situation we shall turn to Gladstone and Granville. They're going to appeal too.

P S Lord Derby arrived last night from Paris and had a long consultation with Disraeli. Possibly Disraeli may accept the office, but it is not probable.'

That's about the way we put it up day before yesterday. We have some hopes that Derby and Granville will draw cuts, and that Gladstone will keep the office. There's evidently a corner in the English Premiership but who are the bulls and who are the 'bears?' We pause for an answer.

The action of the Forty second Congress in passing an act which increases the salary of members of Congress to $6 500 per annum has elicited severe criticism. That feature of the bill which made it retroactive—to apply to members of the Forty second Congress—is, perhaps the most obnoxious of all. The Speaker of the House did himself honor in insisting that his own salary should not be changed. And we read that since Congress adjourned, three members, Hon George F Hoar of Massachusetts, Hon Wm R Roberts of New York and Judge Merrick of Maryland, have refused to accept the extra pay. Mr Hoar devoted the increase to the Worcester County Free Institute for Industrial Science, Mr Roberts directed the Controller to pay his additional salary back into the United States Treasury. We have not yet learned what disposition Judge Merrick has made of his gift. It is to be presumed that it went into the Conscience Fund. The majority of the members however, accepted the situation without any extra facial contortions or twinges of conscience.

There are eleven individuals in North Carolina whose regard for the Scriptures from a financial point of view is worthy of note. It was proposed to pay to certain parties who had secured the scalp of the notorious Boss Strong, one of the famous Lowry gang, a certain reward out of the State Treasury. The eleven conscientious individuals spread their protest against the payment of what they call "blood money," arguing that the offer of such a reward tends to a demoralization of society. The civil power, say they, is sufficient to apprehend and punish offenders against the law. Moreover, such an offer "tends to encourage in the human breast a feeling hostile to the principles of the Christian religion and destructive of all moral advancement." There certainly is a degree of ferocity in this paying for the hunting down and shooting in cold blood of a criminal which is at war with the spirit of our age and institutions.

The constituencies of the Ohio Congressmen who voted for an increase of salary are up and in arms. The lower House of the Ohio Legislature adopted a resolution strongly censuring the hungry members from that State, and a motion to include a censure of the President for signing the bill was a subject of warm debate. The latter motion was lost however by a vote of 21 to 50. And now a New Hampshire candidate for Congress, Hon William B Small, is primitive enough in his ideas of honesty to suppose that he can be elected upon a promise that, if elected, he will do all in his power to procure the repeal of the act. Too ancient, brother Small, too ancient. And likewise too thin. The pledge should include the promise that he would not vote to raise his salary to $10 000. The paper isn't 'drawn up' strong enough.

Andalusia's tresses are dishevelled and she flings them on the republican breeze which sweeps broad Spain from Barcelona to Cadiz. And the deputies of Andalusia—those hot headed plenipotentiaries of a Lie which threatens to become a Truth (we mean Spanish Republicanism)—these reckless individuals are the cause of all this difficulty. These are the men who dishevel and fling as aforesaid. The fever of republicanism goes to a great length in Spain. What was a province under Isabella became a principality under Amadeus. What is it under Figueras? A Republic, shout Andalusia deputies. Whereupon a solemn conclave is called, grave pact is ratified and Andalusia is 'a Federal State Government based on free trade and free ports.' Such are some of the antics of republicanism in its swaddling clothes!

A Washington dispatch of March 10th says that the President has appointed Gov Yates a Commissioner to attend to the interests of the United States in all matters connected with land grants to the Northern Pacific and Texas Southern Pacific Railroad, and to see that they comply with the law.

Oakes Ames' constituency have not lost faith in his honesty. They gave him a complimentary reception on Thursday last. The leading citizens of North Easton tendered him their regards, and Oakes was greatly affected by this remarkable outburst of confidence.

LATE EASTERN NEWS

THE CALDWELL BRIBERY CASE

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the resolution reported by the Committee on Elections that Alexander Caldwell was not duly or legally elected to the Senate by the Kansas Legislature.

Morton, after some preliminary remarks, alluded to the general denial of Caldwell that he had bribed any member of the Kansas Legislature to vote for him, and then proceeded to argue that the charge that Caldwell was elected by the use of bribery was sustained by the testimony. He quoted parliamentary law to show that bribery is not only infringement of [illegible] privilege, but when a single elector is prevented from exercising his right by external violence the election is void without reference to the number of votes. 'This is indispensable to the freedom of elections. The man who would purchase one vote would purchase all, and his corrupt influence would be limited only by his means of corruption. The Senate had a right to protect itself against a criminal, although the Legislature electing him might be indifferent on the subject. The power to expel a member was necessary to enable the House to perform its necessary duty, to enable the House to perform its high functions, and was incidental to the protection of the State.' In further argument Morton said this was the most flagrant case of bribery in English or American politics, and then examined the testimony in the case to show that such was the fact, and that just before Caldwell's election the talk of corruption was as common and free in Topeka as talk about the markets and the weather.

Caldwell said he had prepared a statement which, his voice being affected by a cold, he desired should be read at the Secretary's desk.

The Secretary then read the statement, which was in the nature of a legal argument. There was no pretense that his credentials did not speak the truth. It was an absolute fact that a majority of the Kansas Legislature did vote for him, while there was no proof that there was any restraint in the premises. The election of United States Senator is an act of the State, in its sovereign capacity, with which the Senate cannot interfere. Numerous precedents are quoted in support of this proposition. The Constitution makes the Senate the sole judge of the qualifications and returns of its own members, but it must be governed by written law. Caldwell insists that the Senate must be governed by the law as it existed at the time of his election.

Before the reading was completed, on motion of Cameron the Senate went into executive session and afterwards adjourned.

THE PRESIDENT CONGRATULATED BY THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

WASHINGTON, March 10.—In accordance with the usual custom, the members of the diplomatic corps in Washington called in a body on the President at noon to day, to pay their respects and congratulate him on the beginning of his second term of office. Many members of the corps were accompanied by their wives. The President with Mrs Grant on his arm, and followed by the members of the Cabinet with their wives, led the way to the East room, where they were joined by the diplomatic corps, which corps, headed by the Turkish Minister, shook hands with the President. The Turkish Minister then read the following address:

'Mr President—I have the honor to offer the congratulations of the diplomatic corps on this occasion of your inauguration. I feel both pleased and flattered that the duty has devolved upon me to express to you the sincere wishes of my colleagues and myself for the preservation of your life and the consequent success of your Administration.'

To which the President replied:

"I receive with sensibility the congratulations which you offer in behalf of your colleagues accredited to this Government. My intercourse with you all has hitherto been agreeable and I trust it may so continue. It is my wish, and shall be my purpose, in the future, as it has been in the past, to keep up with the countries which you represent, those cordial and friendly relations which are essential to the general prosperity and happiness."

CONVENTION OF COLORED MEN

WASHINGTON, March 10.—At a convention of colored men held here to-night, including representatives from various parts of the country, an address was adopted claiming a full measure of civil rights, asking the passage by the next Congress of a supplemental civil rights bill, expressing sympathy with the Cubans, denouncing Spanish barbarity, and concluding with resolutions thanking the President for fully committing himself to the principle of civil rights, and expressing gratitude to Charles Sumner, whose name, above all others, coming in mind in connection with civil rights, is precious to colored men. There was great applause at the mention of Sumner's name. Speeches were made by Sella Martin and Hon N P Banks, in advocacy of the extension of belligerent rights to the Cubans, and the abolition of slavery in Cuba. Addresses were also made by Congressman Rainey and ex Governor Pinchback.

A Washington dispatch of the 8th instant says:

A fair indication of public sentiment relative to the late Congress was manifested by the convention at Hartford Connecticut, which renominated Joseph R Hawley, who earnestly fought railroad rings, refused complicity in the salary steal, and was on the honest side every time. The Convention adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we have seen, with profound regret, the recent developments at Washington, and the evidence of deep political commercial immorality in the affairs of the Union Pacific Railroad Credit Mobilier, and in the undue and retroactive increase of salaries, that we have been shocked by the proof that trusted men, sent to Congress as the people's servants, have used their responsible positions to further private ends by robbing the public treasury, and by extending bribes to their co-representatives. That great corporations have contributed money toward the election of Congressmen who might be useful to them, and persons high in official station, suspected of questionable practices, have disgraced the country by prevarication, if not by falsehood.

Resolved, That the time has come in Congress and in the country for a higher and purer political tone for the prompt punishment and disgrace of unfaithful public men, and that no partisanship shall shield those who have betrayed the confidence which has been extended to them. That we will resist demoralization by corporations, and will support no man for office who is not free from the taint of jobbing.

The Springfield Republican and New York Sun both advise Hawley's support by the Democrats and Liberals. Hawley and Blaine are generally acknowledged to be the rising men in the party.

The S F Chronicle's Washington correspondent telegraphs under date of March 10th as follows:

Ex Senator Pomeroy is making efforts to unseat Caldwell of Kansas, in order to get the Senatorial place for himself. Pomeroy says if Caldwell is turned out, he (Pomeroy) would have a good chance to be elected, in spite of York's disclosures.

At the Senatorial caucus it was determined to reconsider the intention to take up the case of Senator Patterson, of New Hampshire. It was concluded that with the Caldwell and Clayton cases a week or two would be taken up and the Senators are all too anxious to get home to let anything, they can help, stand in the way.

William Miller, Collector at the port of Mobile, is a defaulter to the Government to the amount of $25 000 and has been requested to resign.

The Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad, in calling in passes, discovered that nearly every member of the Poland Investigation Committee had received and used free passes over the road.

Prince Bismarck is a most aggressive statesman. His famous edict for the expulsion of Jesuits from Prussian territory aroused a storm of fierce wrath and called forth the strongest denunciations of the Pope. The Prince stands unbowed amid these threats and missiles. So far from being deterred from the accomplishment of his design is he, that he has, within a few days, presented to the Prussian Diet a measure looking to the final suppression of ecclesiastical power in his kingdom. His new bill places additional restrictions on the power of the Roman Catholic clergy, and was supported by Bismarck in a powerful speech, say the dispatches.

The Bulletin says as good papers as the OREGONIAN in some countries, are furnished to their subscribers at a bit a week, and demands to know why we do not reduce the price of the OREGONIAN to that sum. The question might be pertinent enough if it came from some other source, but we deny the Bulletin's right to ask it till that journal is sold as a penny paper. 'He who asks equity, must do equity.'

To the Farmers Clubs of Oregon

It is desirable that all the Clubs formed or that will be in time send up their delegates to their County Convention on Friday, March 8th, each Club to send its officers and one delegate.

The State Farmers' Union will meet on Thursday, April 10th, and the officers elected from each county will attend and one delegate from each Club selected by them.

Whether the Clubs desire to form a State Union or not let us in this way counsel one another as to the best policy to be pursued in the future for the best interests of the farmers of Oregon.

The Northern Pacific—What is to be done this Year.

[From the St Paul Press Feb 2.]

At a general meeting of the Board of Directors and officers of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company held in New York during the present month it was decided to push forward the work with all possible speed during the available portion of the year 1873, and in accordance with this decision a definite programme was arranged which will be as closely adhered to as circumstances will permit.

Immediately following the appearance of settled and favorable weather the line is to be fully opened to Edwinton, the present terminal point on the Missouri river. This portion of the work will be completed by the opening of navigation on that stream, all the material required having been placed on the ground last fall, prior to the advent of cold weather. The entire line to the Missouri river was so well advanced last year that comparatively little will be required to place it in good running order from the outlets upon Lake Superior or the Mississippi river at St Paul, to the Missouri.

In anticipation of a radical change in the direction taken by the travel and traffic from the Western Territories to the populous States and marts of the East, the Company has determined to operate two passenger trains per day to and from Edwinton—one being designed exclusively for passengers and the other an accommodation or mixed train. These trains will run in connection with a line of steamers which are to make regular trips during the season of navigation between Edwinton and Fort Benton, a military post situated at or near the head of navigation on the Missouri river, and which has heretofore been considered the point of divergence toward the gold fields of Montana or the more secluded, but perhaps, not less profitable, range of the hunters and trappers along the base of the Rocky Mountains, or on the margins of the timbered water courses.

The line of steamers will be divided into two branches, a small fraction thereof being intended to ply the Missouri, between Edwinton and Sioux City, thus affording regular facilities to the settlements and military posts on that stream situated below its 'Northern Pacific crossing.' Six steamers are to be placed in the line between Edwinton and Fort Benton, a number considered ample for the accommodation of travel and freights either eastward or westward bound. Should the business of this new thoroughfare, however, require additional facilities for the rapid and secure movement of commodities, the company will supply them whenever and as rapidly as the necessity is indicated.

When the steamers begin their trips to Fort Benton wagon trains will continue and complete the connection between the citizens of Montana and those of Eastern America, and while this portion of the route may wear its primitive features, it will nevertheless answer its purpose and complete the first direct chain of communication established between Northern cities and the remote Territories.

Surveys will be prosecuted west of the Missouri river until a feasible route is discovered—characteristics of the country embraced in some portions of the Western extension being of a nature discouraging to any hope of successful railroading over their intricate and broken surfaces. Special pains will be taken to secure a good route, and when this is discovered, and the line definitely located by the engineers, construction will follow immediately, and will be prosecuted with unremitting vigor.

Perhaps the busiest scene of the summer on the Northern Pacific road will be found on that portion of the line lying between Puget Sound and the base of the Rocky Mountains, a distance of 280 miles. Here will be concentrated as large a force as can be gathered together advantageously, and the Company hopes to have the entire stretch between the points named fully completed and ready for the movement of trains before the next winter forces a temporary suspension of operations.

CITY.

GOV. GROVER'S TRIAL TRIP.—Everything being pronounced in complete working condition, the steamer Gov. Grover made her trial trip on Saturday last. Steam was raised and the boat left the wharf at the foot of E street at 1 o'clock. The matter had been arranged so quietly that few were aware that the trip was to be made on that day. Only the officers and a few invited guests were on board. There were only about seventy pounds of steam to the square inch when the boat left the wharf. The water in the boiler foamed so much as to prevent the rapid generation of steam, and the boat made but little headway against the current and strong wind. But after several hundred yards were made the steamer shot rapidly ahead, and soon arrived at Milwaukie. At that point wood was taken on board and the steamer turned her prow for Portland. Just 22 minutes were required to make her landing at the Gas Company's wharf, which may be considered good time. Considering that everything is new throughout, the trial trip was successful and wholly satisfactory to the contractors and the Company. The propelling power of the Gov. Grover consists of two engines of 5 foot stroke and 17 inch bore, which drive a stern wheel 17 feet 9 inches in diameter, with buckets 18 feet 6 inches in length and 8 inches in breadth. She can carry with ease and safety nearly 100 tons of freight, and will doubtless be one of the most rapid steamers on the upper Wallamet. The following are the officers: Captain and Purser, Chas. Holman; Chief Engineer, George Marshal; First Pilot, A. Vicker; Second Pilot, Chas. Kellogg; Steward, Joseph Harrison.

The Gov. Grover will receive freight for the upper Wallamet to-day. To-morrow morning she will start for Harrisburg with freight and passengers. Hereafter this steamer will constantly ply between Portland and the various points along the river.

SAFELY OFF.—The latest advices from Astoria state that the bark Ilione, which has been aground below that point on what is known as the Middle Sands since Tuesday last, succeeded in getting clear on Thursday. During that entire day, the tugs Varuna and Merrimac were endeavoring to pull the bark off, but without succeeding. Despairing of being able to extricate the vessel without lightering, the captain sent the mate to this city with instructions to engage the Emma Hayward, and have that steamer proceed to her assistance without delay. Accordingly the steamer went down the river on last Friday afternoon to lighter the bark, and, if possible, draw her clear. However, on Thursday, after the two tugs had abandoned the Ilione, and the mate had departed for Astoria on one of them, a strong wind came up from the west, at the same time the tide began to rise. The wind and tide combined caused the bark to swing clear. Instantly the sails were spread and the vessel passed out into the channel. On reaching deep water the anchor was dropped and the bark was fortunately free from danger. It is stated that there is no damage to the vessel at all. During the time she was fast on the sand the cargo did not shift and the vessel did not leak a drop. Finding the services of the Emma Hayward were not required, Capt. Smith returned yesterday with that steamer. A number of men who went down to assist in lightering the bark also returned. The Ilione was all ready to pass to sea, and no doubt was towed over the bar yesterday.

SCHOONER PARALLEL.—The schooner Parallel, Capt. Moores, master, arrived at this port yesterday from Astoria, in tow of the tug Varuna. This schooner sailed from San Francisco for Portland on the 13th inst. After a moderate passage of eight days she arrived off the mouth of the Columbia. For the space of five days the schooner hung off the bar, waiting for the tug. None came, and on the fifth day, favored by a fair wind and smooth sea, sails were hoisted and the vessel passed into the river without difficulty, although there was no pilot on board and the master was wholly unacquainted with the bar. The Parallel brought to this port about 40 tons of assorted cargo, consisting mainly of lime. The vessel was built about five years ago at San Francisco, and has been constantly employed as a coaster ever since. Her dimensions are: Length, 98 feet, beam, 31 feet, hold, 8 feet. The registered capacity is 118 tons. She is a trim and neatly built craft and is reputed to be a good sailer. The cargo will be discharged to-day, and the schooner will probably go down the river this evening or early to-morrow morning to St. Helens, at which point a cargo of lumber will be received for the San Francisco market.

CHURCH AT VANCOUVER.—The new Episcopal Church at Vancouver, which was begun nearly two years ago, is so far finished as to be ready for service, and was occupied for the first time on the 21 of the month. As the church is at present arranged, the chancel end is boarded in and only the nave occupied. A temporary chancel has been constructed, and the seats from the old church are still used. The nave is 56x36 feet, and has a tower at the corner 12 feet square. The tower and spire are to be 100 feet high. The design for the building was furnished by the late Mr. Jordan, and when completed it will be altogether the largest and finest Episcopal church, after Trinity Church, Portland. A new organ recently purchased, adds greatly to the effectiveness of the music. Bishop Morris officiated last Sunday morning and evening, preaching to a large congregation on both occasions. A Missionary Convocation is appointed to meet in this church on Thursday evening, the 27th of March.

GENERAL SHIPPING.—The barks Privang and Northumbria, and the schooner Oregonian, are all lying at Astoria ready for sea.

At last accounts the brig Perpetua was loading at Centerville with lumber for San Francisco.

The brig Orient and schooner H. L. Tiernan are loading with lumber at St. Helens for the same port.

The bark Gemini is at Flanders' wharf receiving grain. Her cargo is nearly finished, and will proceed down the river to Astoria in a few days.

The bark Tamoya is lying at McCraken's wharf, discharging ballast and receiving grain. She is under charter to carry a load of wheat to Europe.

The schooner Parallel is discharging cargo on Flanders' wharf.

The bark Free Trade has nearly finished discharging her assorted cargo.

The steamer Gussie Telfair will soon be due at this port from the north.

WRIST CUT.—A young man named Bromley, while under the influence of liquor, engaged in an altercation with another person late on Saturday night. Bromley became incensed about some trivial matter and drew a large pocket knife, which he commenced to brandish about in an excited manner. Whether by accident or intention, we are unable to state, he struck the wrist of his companion with the blade. A very severe gash was inflicted and the principal artery of the wrist severed. On perceiving that he was cut the man started for Skidmore's drug store instantly. However, the wound bled so profusely that he had scarcely reached the store when he fainted from the loss of blood. The severed artery was taken up and the wound carefully dressed. He will probably not lose the use of his hand. Bromley was arrested but admitted to bail. The case will probably come up for investigation this morning.

PASSENGERS FOR PORTLAND.—The following is the list of passengers booked for Portland by the steamer Ajax, which left San Francisco on the 15th inst.: H. Hewitt and wife, Miss M. Couch, Miss E. Lewis, Major Collins, U. S. A., wife and four children; P. F. Bradford and wife, Miss M. Piper, Captain Spotts, U. S. N., G. R. Siggs, P. F. Bradford Jr., P. Cleary, Thos. Crelling, S. T. Pinto, F. H. Cook, H. S. Whittier, Mrs. J. D. Mix, H. W. Heyman and wife, C. H. Meussdorffer, G. W. Gray, C. Seffers, Charles Kohn, N. Flickinger, R. D. Merry, J. N. Horner, F. W. Paine, Joseph Knott, J. Hunter, S. Davis, W. L. Leonard, C. Nelson, P. Gillman, Miss Dore, H. H. Hoggkins, wife and 4 children, A. Veil, wife and child, A. Nelson, wife and child; R. R. Foster, Charles Button, J. Miller Jr., H. Frost, John Dick, P. Dickerson, C. White, M. Legrander, Mrs. Akod, Mrs. M. B. Parker, E. Richardson and wife.

COOS BAY ITEMS.—Our correspondent, writing from Empire City under date of March 11th, says: Mr. T. G. Owen of this place has returned from San Francisco with a printing press and material for a newspaper, to be called the Coos Bay News. It will be issued weekly. Arrivals and departures for the week ending March 11, 1873. Arrived—Schooners Kitty Stevens, Ivanhoe, Concordia and Arago. Sailed—Bark Clara R. Sutil, Schooners Alaska, B. H. Ramsdell and Pacific.

The amount of coal shipped for the same week was 900 tons, and of lumber 200,000 feet.

A. Ehman builds neat and substantial cottage houses, hard finished, for $650. Prices for story and a half and two story houses reasonable in proportion. Plans of houses on hand. Inquire at 105 First street, opposite postoffice.

A FRAIL CRAFT.—A lover of novelties was trying his hand at running a Kayak or Sitka boat in the river, opposite the foot of Alder street, yesterday morning. The frail craft consists of a light frame, cigar shaped, and covered with seal skin, and weighs but a few pounds. It will, however, carry a full-grown man over the surface of the water very nicely, as long as the passenger keeps his equilibrium with perfect exactness, but let him swerve by so much as an ounce to one side or the other, and the boat is bottom upwards in a twinkling. The first young man who tried it yesterday rode about the distance of ten feet, and went over beautifully, to the merriment of numerous spectators who lined the bank. He quickly swam ashore, and went homeward in a very damp condition. The owner of the craft then attempted the feat of riding the concern, and his first effort met with little better success, for he was soon floundering in the river. But he was nothing daunted by his Sabbath morning bath and with dripping garments he drew the boat ashore, emptied the water out, and again took his seat in her, but handled himself with great care and succeeded in running his vessel ashore before she upset again.

ROUND THE BLOCK.—Last Saturday a team attached to an empty wagon, took sudden fright, or concluded to "have a spin" in absence of the driver, and started off. They fairly flew around the block and came back to the identical spot from whence they had started and stopped short. The driver heard the clatter, and ran out. Perceiving the retreating form of his horses, he gave valiant pursuit and came round the block just in time to see his wagon completely capsized on the precise spot where he had left the team and vehicle standing but a moment previous.

AN OLD ORCHARD.—We were shown yesterday several olive leaves sent to Capt. J. R. Wiley by his sister, who, in company with her mother, is now traveling in Southern California for the benefit of her health. The leaves were plucked from an olive orchard on what is known as the Old Mission, situated 11 miles from San Diego. The trees from which the leaves are gathered were planted by the old Spanish priests who founded the Mission over a century ago. Notwithstanding the long lapse of years, the trees are still alive and fruitful.

COMING UP.—From the steamer Emma Hayward, which arrived from Astoria yesterday, we learn that the third schooner of the new line recently established between this city and San Francisco, by C. D. Morrison & Co., the Marietta, crossed the bar on Saturday last, and is now in the river in tow of the Merrimac. She will discharge her cargo, consisting entirely of salt, at the Eagle Cliff fishery. The vessel will then proceed to St. Helens, and take on board a load of lumber for San Francisco.

NEW SOCIETY.—A new Society, known by the name of "Philalethic Literary Society," has recently been organized in this city. On Tuesday evening last, the first meeting was held, and on Thursday following, a permanent organization was effected by the election of officers. The following are the officers: President, W. J. Kelly, Vice President, Alexander Meachen; Secretary, John M. Gearin, Treasurer, John Raleigh. The object of the Society is the cultivation of literary tastes.

WORK TO BEGIN.—By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that operations are soon to be commenced along the line of the North Pacific railroad. W. Milnor Roberts, Chief Engineer, advertises in these columns for bids for contracts of grubbing and clearing 40 miles of that road northward from Tenino. Full particulars can be learned, and plans and specifications seen at the Engineer's office at Kalama.

FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH.—The Sentinel says that the Catholic Church will celebrate next Wednesday, March 19th, the Feast of St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus and patron of the universal Church. Though the feast is not one of obligation, it should nevertheless be the aim of all Catholics to celebrate it in the spirit with which it is celebrated by the Church, of which he has been proclaimed patron.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—A. B. Richardson sold at auction on last Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, a portion of the estate of W. E. Cooper deceased, as follows: Lot on corner of Tenth and Alder streets, 52x50, for $2,000; lot on corner Tenth and Alder streets, 48x60, for $1,400; lot on corner Tenth and Alder streets, 34x100, for $1,350. The sale of the remainder of the property is postponed.

DEPARTED.—The little schooner H. L. Tiernan, which arrived at this port on last Friday evening from San Francisco, completed discharging cargo on Saturday, and went down the river yesterday in tow of the Varuna. This vessel, as are also all the others which belong to the Star line, is under charter to the St. Helens Mill Company. She will carry hence to San Francisco a load of lumber.

LOAD OF CEMENT.—The masonry work on the new woolen mills at Oregon City, is prospering as expeditiously as circumstances will admit. On Saturday last, the Calliope carried up a load of lime and cement for Mr. Thorkelsen, the contractor. After discharging the load, the steamer returned to this city. She will probably not attempt to ascend the Yamhill river for several days yet.

RECTORSHIP.—The Oregon Churchman says that the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Salem, have called the Rev. Edward Gilliam of Jackson, North Carolina, to the Rectorship of that parish. Mr. Gilliam is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and has had some years of experience in both school teaching and parochial work.

ON ROLLERS.—The Rink was well attended on Saturday evening with devotees of the art of roller skating. The band, under the direction of the Peterson Bros., assisted materially in making the evening a pleasant one. A number of spectators were present. Until further notice, the sport will continue at the Skating Rink.

NO VERDICT—DISCHARGED.—After being out for about 19 hours, the jury in the case of the United States vs. W. S. Kitchen being unable to agree upon a verdict, were discharged by the court, and prisoner was remanded to the custody of the U. S. Marshal. The jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal.

BRIDGE FINISHED.—The planking of Fourth street bridge in East Portland, which was commenced several weeks ago, is nearly completed. There remains only a few rods more of old plank to move, and their places to be supplied by new. Railing will soon be put up, and the bridge thrown open to travel again.

SUITS IN CHANCERY.—The Circuit Court will commence to-day the trial of the remaining chancery suits which are on the docket. These causes will be tried in the order in which they occur. They will probably not require more than the present week to dispose of all.

POSTPONED.—In consequence of the lecture by Dr. Lindsley on next Wednesday at the Methodist Church, the festival announced to have been given at the Presbyterian Church on the same evening has been postponed. Due notice of the festival will be given.

RESIGNED—ELECTED.—The Rev. Dr. Nevius having resigned some months ago the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Portland, to take effect on the 1st of July, and the Rev. George Burton of the Bishop Scott Grammar School, has been elected in his stead.

DR. LINDSLEY'S LECTURE.—By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that a lecture is to be delivered at the Taylor street M. E. Church, on Wednesday evening next, by Rev. Dr. Lindsley. His subject will be "The Art of Pleasing."

OFF FOR EUROPE.—After many vexatious delays in obtaining a crew, the ship Victoria Cross was ready to sail on last Friday evening. Early on Saturday morning availing of fair winds and a smooth bar, she was towed to sea.

REQUESTED TO MEET.—The members of the Emmet Guard are requested to meet at their Armory this morning at 9 o'clock sharp, to be in readiness to participate in the exercises of St. Patrick's Day.

PURSE FOUND.—The person who left a purse on the counter at Chas. Holder's store, on last Saturday, can have the same by calling there, proving property and paying for this notice.

Remember the Noon Day Prayer Meetings at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., corner of Stark and First street, from 12½ to 1 o'clock.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

This day is the anniversary of Ireland's patron saint, Patricius or Patrick, and as such is observed as a national holiday by the sons of the Emerald Isle in whatever quarter of the globe they may be established, whether in the pampas of South America, the burning sands of India, the forests of Australia, or in our own free land. The day has both a national and religious character, but its principal significance is based on the fact that Patrick was the first to introduce Christianity into Ireland. By a simple illustration, he converted the princes and nobles of Ireland in one hour from the mystical faith of Druidism to the living religion of the gospel. It is related of him that he was first a slave in Ireland, but having escaped, fled to France, thence to Rome, where he was ordained as priest and sent back to Ireland to preach the true gospel, having received the title of Patricius or noble, hence the name Patrick. Immediately after reaching the scene of his future labors, he commenced preaching, and soon had many converts, the most important of whom was St. Benanius, the most zealous follower. Hearing that the king, princes and nobles of Ireland, were to assemble at Tara, with their knights and men at arms to hold the annual festival, knightly tilts, and other sports, Patrick, with his few followers, went boldly into their presence and announced his mission. When he was questioned relative to the Trinity and how such a paradox could exist, he plucked a shamrock from the ground, and by it readily illustrated his assertion. The chief harper of the king spoke up and said that he must be a special messenger sent from Heaven to teach them the true religion, and he believed his utterances. All assembled at the festival, accepted immediately the new faith, and were baptized. Patrick, then, with a large number of followers, went to every portion of Ireland, converted persons by the thousands wherever he appeared, and thus did Christianity become established in Ireland, without any bloodshed, and this is in contradistinction to the remainder of Europe, where it was ushered in by torrents of blood. Ere Patrick died, he had established over three hundred Cathedrals, and appointed over three thousand priests. It is in honor of the conversion from paganism that the Irish celebrate the day, and that the shamrock has become a national emblem. In this city it will be duly observed by Irishmen of all shades of politics and creeds. A parade, in which all the military companies of the city will participate, an oration by S. J. McCormick, a dinner at Masonic Hall, and a grand ball in the evening will close the observances of the day.

The impudent fellow actually had his arm around the maiden's waist, and was kissing her when the gentleman appeared suddenly on the scene. Is there no law to punish such desecration?

The Benton Democrat says: It certainly is a very great hardship for the farmer to grow the finest quality of wheat, and then have it stored in bulk in a bin together with an inferior article, and the whole sold as "ordinary" or "inferior." But not alone to the individual is this custom proving detrimental. Oregon, as a State, produces as good wheat as any other quarter of the globe, and the injection of a small quantity of inferior grain not only depreciates the value of one particular lot, but injures the reputation, in the foreign market, of all Oregon-grown wheat. Let our farmers see to it, that their wheat hereafter be graded, and so stored as to bring its full value, according to quality.

The following is that part of the report of the late grand jury of Marion county which relates to the penitentiary: "We have visited the State Penitentiary, and so far as our investigations went, found the building to be in good order, everything clean and neat connected therewith. The books and business department of the institution, so far as we were able to determine, were conducted in an efficient and business-like manner; perfect order and system seemed to pervade every department."

It is no secret that Professor Agassiz is a strong opponent of the Darwinian theory of natural selection. Not long ago he was introduced to a lady whom he was quite sure of having met before. She told him that he was mistaken. He laughingly replied: "Well, we have known each other, but I presume it was when we were both toads."

The Atmosphere of Spring.

With every change of season we have a change in the hygyenic character of the air. In the spring it is impregnated, especially in low lying, wet districts, with mephetic vapors, which generate chills and fever, rheumatism, indigestion, biliousness and diseases of the organs of respiration. It is therefore particularly necessary at this time of the year to invigorate and regulate the system, so as to enable it to repel the morbid influences to which it is more or less subjected. The stomach should be toned, the bowels freed from obstructions, the blood purified, and the nerves braced and strengthened. This can be easily done. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are everywhere procurable; and in the whole range of remedies and preventives prescribed by the faculty or recommended through the press, there is not one that combines in such an eminent degree great efficiency and perfect harmlessness. It is a positive antidote to malaria. Whoever takes it habitually may breathe the atmosphere of the worst fever and ague locality without danger. Damp and chilling winds make little or no impression on the organization reinforced with this powerful vegetable invigorant, and consequently it is a good safeguard against asthma, coughs, colds and other pulmonary complaints. It is not recommended as a remedy for this latter class of maladies, but simply as a means of strengthening the system against the aerial conditions and changes which so often produce them. As a spring invigorant and alterative it will be found extremely beneficial to persons who are peculiarly sensitive to unhealthy atmospheric influences.

The Man in the Iron Mask

The Paris correspondent of the New York Times relates the latest solution of the old mystery about the "Man in the Iron Mask." M. Yung, a staff officer in the French army, now proves, or appears to prove, that the Man of the Iron Mask was not the important personage he was supposed to be, but merely the Chevalier Kiftenbach who called himself in France the Chevalier des Harmoises. He was a native of Lorraine, of noble birth, and of excellent education. He was thrown into prison by the Minister Louvois who, for his own ends, desired the papers which the Chevalier had in his possession and which were very compromising to the Minister's enemies. Some years ago Captain Yung accidentally came upon the records of the poisoners and upon the decrees of Louvois. He found in these papers the clew to the iron mask mystery but his copies of the documents were never stamped, and he was told that the Emperor declined to sanction the publication of his documents of which he had taken copies, for the Bourbons had been the sovereigns of France. With the advent of the Republic the way was clear for Captain Yung and M. Thiers has given the authority refused by Napoleon III. In the time of Louvois there was great commotion at Paris and Versailles over the Brinvilliers poisoning cases, and readers of history will remember that a "Poisoning Society," or organization, was discovered which was said to extend throughout Europe, and Mme. de Montespan, the Prince de Conde, and many more were implicated. It is certain that hundreds of persons were poisoned at this time, and that a plot was discovered for poisoning the King and all his heirs. One-half the court was concerned, at least, and all the enemies of Louvois joined this society of poisoners. The Minister knew of the cabal formed against him, and was sure of certain members, Conde among the number, but he was unable to get the proofs he wanted, and which he made every effort to procure. At length, however, bribery aided him, and he learned that this gentleman from Lorraine, the Chevalier de Kiffenbach, was not only a member of the organization, but in possession of its records. Besides, in order to prevent his own betrayal, he had taken the precaution to compromise every member and held the secrets of their implication in the plot in writing. Louvois had him seized and secretly thrown into prison. His papers were seized also, and the chroniclers of the time inform us that the Minister sent for the Prince de Conde, his greatest enemy, who left him a firm friend. A few days later the great poisoning conspiracy was revealed, as history records. In one of the reports of the men who seized the Chevalier, mention is made of a velvet mask placed over the head of the prisoner, and we now know that there was no such thing as an iron mask, the mask which was so called being made of velvet. With these facts Capt. Yung began a long and tedious process. The prison records are perfect, and the registers still show the name of every prisoner entered. One of the prisoners upon the register must be the "Man in the Iron Mask," and the difficulty was to fix upon the man. The slight hint given above really proves nothing, by itself, and so M. Yung went through the entire records in order to arrive at the real man by a process of elimination. He claims to have done so faithfully, and to have traced every prisoner's career, finding that one alone at all fulfilled the conditions and that the Man in the Iron Mask could be no other than the Chevalier de Kiftenbach, seized by Louvois. As the Minister had stolen his papers, and had used his secrets with most terrible effect, he had every reason for preventing not only his escape, but communication with the world.—Boston Advertiser.

The Supplemental Report of the Wilson Credit Mobilier Committee

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The supplemental report of the Wilson Credit Mobilier Committee, recommending the appointment of a commission to investigate the Central Pacific and Contract and Finance Companies' affairs, has just been printed. After quoting from the testimony of Huntington and Franchot, the report says:

"It would seem from the testimony of Mr. Huntington that there is probable cause for believing that the capital of the Central Pacific Railroad Company does not represent cash, but the profits on construction, and that the property of the road has passed largely into the hands of its own officers, who have made contracts in its name with themselves. Whether these contracts have been lawful and justifiable, it would be unjust to the parties to express an opinion here. We think they afford good reason for further inquiry. It also appears that there is no exact statement of the real cost of the work. It is important that such statement should now be so made as to bind both parties, and be prepared with reference to the right of Congress to legislate to fix fare when the net earnings amount to ten per cent. of cost.

"The case of the Central Pacific Railroad Company differs from that of the Union Pacific Railroad Company in the essential particular that the former was created by the State of California, and the latter by Act of Congress. Congress has no concern with any alleged disobedience by the Central Pacific Railroad Company of the requirements of the Act incorporating it, unless such disobedience constitutes a breach of the conditions on which the corporation accepted the grants from the Government, but Congress is concerned, first, to see that its bounty has not been misapplied, second, to fix the true cost of the road, third, to see whether the provisions of the statute of 1864, section 15, have been observed, which provided that the several companies authorized to construct the aforesaid roads are hereby required to operate and use said roads and telegraphs for all purposes of communication, travel, and transportation, as far as the public and Government are concerned, as one continuous line, and in such operation and use to afford and secure to each equal advantages and facilities as to rates, time, and transporation, without any discrimination of any kind in favor of the road or business of any or either of said companies, or adverse to the road or business of any or either of the others."

Members of the next Congress declare their intention to pursue the investigation.

Living by Rule.

Alexander Roberts, was born in Detroit seventy years ago, died the other day in Leeds, England. His father took him to England when but a boy, and soon after set him up in business, with the positive injunction never to spend more than eight shillings and sixpence a week. Roberts adhered closely to his instructions from that time to his death. He construed the rule to involve the rent of his store, and so in a little while, when increasing business made him enlarge his store, he gave up any outside home, and lived and slept there. As rents rose, and his business, second hand clothes selling, increased, he had to cut down his food expenses still lower, and to move into narrower quarters. This he did time and again, until at the close of last summer he was nearly starved to death. His acquaintances finally one day found him prostrated entirely by the overwhelming filth of his narrow home and the lack of all nourishing food. They persuaded him to buy some medicine, but when he got it it only gave him an appetite. He could not afford to buy any food after paying for the medicine, so he wandered out to a horsechesnut tree and filled himself with its luscious fruits. He returned to his home and died there. This is the brief story. He was reputed to be worth at least $300,000, but his early vow was kept to the end, and so long as he existed it was never at a greater expense than eight shilling and sixpence a week. His instructions were to live for that sum, and he thought he obeyed. Yet living for that sum caused his death and it becomes a question for the logician whether the man did not by dying disobey orders. But what will be of more interest to the unwise is the fact that Roberts has left no heirs, except such claims as can be advanced by a natural son, who is somewhere in America. Have we not a "claimant" among us.

The wife of the French Minister, the Marquis de Noailles, is classed among the most magnificently dressed ladies in Washington society this Winter. At Mrs. Hamilton Fish's recent ball she wore an entire dress of white lace over gros grain. Her ornaments were diamonds, and a necklace of these precious stones that she wore was valued at $25,000, more or less.

The Boston Journal of Commerce in an article on the Wool trade has the following:

California produced last year more than 20,000,000 pounds of Wool. The greater portion of this vast product came to Boston, and our Wool dealers have a direct trade with it. The amount of the clip and the means of transportation are matters of vital interest to them. At first all of this material came by water. When the Pacific Railroad opened it was thought that Wool would seek and prefer the new and more rapid mode of transit. At first all went on very well, and bales of Wool were delivered in Boston promptly and with dispatch. Goods were received in as short a time as twenty days, and the trade looked with approval upon the enterprise of the railroad men, as a fine opportunity was given them to control the whole business of transportation. If they could do so well certainly they deserve every encouragement.

Then follows an account of the present long delay in the arrival of the shipments in some cases amounting to 60 and 90 days, and the annoyance of having consignments broken up at Omaha to arrive at their destination by different lines and piecemeal. The merchants of Boston call loudly for a correction of these abuses, and will be seconded in any movement to secure a reform by the dealers on this coast who have no less an interest in the prosperity of the trade.

Outlook on the Wheat Question

The editor of the Commercial Reporter compiles the following facts bearing on the present and prospective position of the Wheat markets of the world:

The receipts of Wheat at Lake ports for the week ending February 10th were 550 224 bushels, against 595,[illegible] bushels the previous week, and 174 351 bushels for the corresponding week in 1872. Since Jan 1 1873, 2,580 067 bushels against 1 185 409 bushels for the corresponding time in 1872, 2,956 983 bushels in 1871, and 2,583 201 bushels in 1870. The crop movement since August 1 1872, at Lake ports, aggregates 32 520 152 bushels, against 30 755 40[illegible] bushels in 1871-2. The visible supply Feb 8, 1873 was 6 016,773 bushels against 10 532 309 bushels Feb 10, 1872. The receipts at New York for the week were 53 340 bushels and the exports 40,677 bushels, so that the stock there has been reduced to the extent of the milling requirements. The stock in store Feb 8 1873, was 860,101 bushels against 3 0[illegible] bushels Feb 10 1872, and 2,03[illegible] bushels Feb 11 1871. The returns of the Agricultural Department make the Wheat crop, including winter and spring, in the Northwestern States in 1872 145,350,160 bushels against 145 350 000 bushels in 1871 including winter and spring. In spring Wheat the crop in those States was in the aggregate larger than last year, while there is a very considerable deficiency in the winter Wheat crop, while in the Middle and Eastern States the aggregate of the Wheat crop of 1872 was 28 803 701 bushels against 43 608 440 bushels in 1871 indicating a deficiency of 14 704 7[illegible] bushels, and including the Northwestern States, a deficiency in the aggregate of 15 731 559 bushels. The Wheat crop in Canada in 1872 was deficient, and her requirements will be much above the average. The exports of Wheat from the new crop since September 1 from Atlantic ports, Flour included, have been 9,187 568 bushels against 11 805,915 bushels for the corresponding period in 1871-2. The deficiency is in the winter Wheat crop. It is expected that winter Wheat Flour will be in comparatively limited supply, and higher prices are expected to be realized for home consumption than shippers can pay at the ruling prices in European markets, while the West India and South American markets will be supplied in competition with the home demand. The stocks of Wheat, Flour included, in the principal countries, on the 31st of December, 1872 aggregated including the amount in transit for the United Kingdom, 64-768,784 bushels, against 61,5 2,308 bushels December 31, 1871 indicating a deficiency in the principal countries of stocks in granary at the principal points of accumulation of only 7 783,664 bushels or less than one million quarters. The annual maximum want of the United Kingdom was estimated at 22 million quarters or 176 million bushels. Estimating the home crop of the United Kingdom at 8 million quarters, and adding to it the imports from September 1 to January 15 and the amount in transit for the United Kingdom, and 16 000-136 quarters or 128,001,088 bushels of the 178,000,000 bushels are already provided about 50,000,000 bushels from January 13 to August 31, 1873. A large Wheat crop is reported harvested in Australia, and a surplus of 200,000 tons of Wheat, equal to 6,600 000 bushels, is the estimated surplus there will be from the crop for export. Belgium usually requires 12 or 15 million bushels of foreign Wheat. France last year to September 1 imported about 47 million bushels of Wheat and exported very little. The exports of France, less imports since September 1, were about 7,600,000 showing here a difference in requirements equal to 43 million bushels. Russia has exported, with full crops, about 61 million bushels of Wheat. It is estimated her surplus will be short about twenty five per cent. The Pacific Coast will have a surplus this year, including California Oregon and Chili of 20 million bushels against very little last year or from the crop of 1871. Spain and Portugal had a good Wheat crop and will have enough for their own wants. Italy will require to import considerable Wheat. It is expected that Great Britain will get her 50 million bushels requirements at about the present ruling prices.

Lower Freight

Monday, the date of this paper, the steamer Gov. Grover, of the Willamette Navigation Company, will begin to take on freight at this city for her first trip up the river intending to go as far as Harrisburg. While this may be of itself an unimportant item, we cannot but regard with satisfaction the fact that it marks an era in our commercial affairs which is fraught with benefits both to the business men of Portland and the people on the line of the river. While the tariff of freights fixed by this Company is considerably lower than those heretofore paid, they are nevertheless placed at a figure at which the Company can also live, and that they are not placed down to a nominal rate is to us, an indication of a healthy competition rather than an unreasoning and blind opposition.

We are informed that by Tuesday next it is expected all difficulty in passing through the locks will have vanished with the receding of the waters, and it is not likely that hereafter any further trouble will be feared from that source as it will be a comparatively short job to prevent its recurrence by raising the walls of the canal a few feet in those places where the water has run over them during the late freshet.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—There is but little animation in the market, and matters appear as if the season's business was about closed. No tonnage except that now in port for the United Kingdom is anticipated at present before next harvest, and for that here there is nearly a sufficient supply of wheat already purchased. Exporters seem disinclined to push the market beyond $1 60 ₩ cental.

FLOUR—The demand is tolerably good for local consumption, and prices remain at our last quotations. Some of the interior State mills have temporarily ceased manufacturing and many others are running on short time.

OATS—Owing to diminishing receipts prices are quite firm but as spring approaches the demand also becomes more limited. Dealers and shippers pay 60c ₩ bushel in sacks quite freely, and but few are offering.

BARLEY—There is some inquiry for local consumption, and $1 40@1 50 ₩ 100 ℔s is readily obtained.

FEED—The supply is not so large, but prices remain unchanged.

HAY—Good timothy is scarcer, and that offering changes hands readily at $16@18 ₩ ton. Wild is dull at $8@10.

POTATOES—The receipts are gradually lessening, but the new crop of California being near at hand but few shipments are made to San Francisco, hence prices show but little tendency to advance and are quotable at 45c ₩ bushel for good lots. Inferior varieties are lower.

ONIONS—Some small lots occasionally come to hand, but the aggregate receipts are not large. The San Francisco market is better, and ours is in sympathy with it. We quote at 2½@2¾c ₩ ℔ with a good demand.

APPLES—Inferior lots are noted as arriving, and some have sold as low as 50c ₩ box but they were probably injured by rot. Common command 15@25c ₩ box—more without boxes—while choice varieties, neatly boxed for shipment sell at 90c@$1 ₩ box. The Yellow Newtown seems to be in favor with shippers.

EGGS—There is no important change to note; prices being quite firm and the supply about up to average, though buyers predict a decline to 20 cents per dozen in a few days. We quote at 22c.

BUTTER—The supply of choice is better than a few days ago, and though rates seem but little lower there are indications that a fall will take place. Such is now furnished at about 40 cents. Common country made, put up in tins, cans, boxes, kegs and sacks, can hardly be quoted but ranges from 20 to 30 cents ₩ pound.

CHEESE—Oregon made is supplied at 17@18 cents per pound.

BACON—Established brands command an advance on common country cured, which we quote as follows, Sides 11@12½c, shoulders 9@10 and hams 14@16 cents per pound. The receipts have fallen off somewhat but the supply on hand with dealers here is quite large and exceeds all present demand.

LARD—The market is not active and prices are dull at the quotations last given.

POULTRY—Chickens are plentiful and prices keep well up. Choice lots of hens being quotable at $4 50 per dozen; common $4.

WOOL—But little doing as yet as the last year's clip is about all out. Agents and buyers are discussing the probabilities which will affect prices during the coming season, but few contracts however are being made.

HIDES—The demand is brisk and dealers readily pay 6c cents per pound for green, 7@8 for salted and 15@16c for dry. The tanneries, it is thought will rely on the increase the coming season.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Water Supply.

AN ORDINANCE SUBMITTING TO THE VOTERS of the city of Portland the question of incurring an indebtedness to provide and erect water works for said city, whereby said city and the inhabitants thereof may be supplied with good and wholesome water, and for the construction, improvement and management of the same in case a majority of said votes shall be given in favor of incurring said indebtedness.

WHEREAS, The Common Council, in pursuance of Section 162 of the Act to incorporate the city of Portland, as amended by the Act approved October 21st 1870, contemplate incurring an indebtedness not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of four hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of providing and erecting water works whereby to supply said city and all the inhabitants thereof with a sufficient and constant supply of good and wholesome water at reasonable rates; and,

Whereas, To that end it is contemplated by said Council to purchase all and singular the water works, reservoirs, franchises, privileges and property, both real and personal, now owned, possessed or claimed by the Portland Water Company, and situate and being in the county of Multnomah, State of Oregon, for the sum of two hundred and forty thousand dollars coin, or in gold bonds of the city payable in years bearing per cent interest payable semi-annually to be paid to said Company as hereinafter provided, and the redemption and payment by said city of sixty thousand dollars of currency bonds heretofore issued by said Company and payable at the city of New York in the year 1880 with interest payable in currency semi annually at the rate of seven per centum per annum, and from time to time, as the Common Council may direct and provide, to expend and apply the remainder of said four hundred thousand dollars after paying for the purchase and redemption of said sixty thousand dollars of currency bonds as aforesaid, in laying down additional and larger water mains in said city and otherwise enlarging and improving the fitness and capacity of said water works for extinguishing and preventing fires and for supplying said city and the inhabitants thereof with good and wholesome water and in sufficient quantity; now, therefore,

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. That at the general election to be held in the city of Portland on Monday, June 16, 1873, there shall be and hereby is submitted to the voters of said city, the estimate of indebtedness proposed to be incurred by the Common Council as set forth in the preamble hereto, for the purposes and objects herein stated.

Section 2. At such election it shall be lawful for each and every voter in said city, at his proper place of voting, therein, and at the time of his voting for city officers then to be elected, to vote upon the question whether said Council may or may not incur said indebtedness for said purposes and objects.

Section 3. A vote in the affirmative of said question shall be given by writing or printing upon the ballot deposited by the voter with the Judges of election the words "For Indebtedness," and a vote in the negative of said question shall be given by writing or printing upon such ballot the words "Against Indebtedness."

Section 4. The poll-books of each ward for such general election shall contain two columns or spaces for the purpose of recording or marking therein the votes given upon said question, one of which columns or spaces shall be headed or entitled "For Indebtedness," and the other "Against Indebtedness;" and such votes shall be given, received, counted, canvassed and the result thereof declared in the same manner as votes given in the election of Mayor of said city.

Section 5. If a majority of all the votes which are given upon the question of incurring said indebtedness for the purposes and objects aforesaid be given or cast "For Indebtedness" thereon, the following sections of this ordinance shall take effect and be in force—but not otherwise.

Section 6. Within thirty days from the holding of the election aforesaid said Portland Water Company shall convey and transfer to the City of Portland, by proper and sufficient conveyances duly executed and delivered to the Mayor, all the property, rights and privileges owned, possessed or claimed by them.

Section 7. Upon the transfer and delivery of said property as aforesaid, the City of Portland shall become liable to pay, and hereby expressly agrees to pay and assume the payment of the sixty thousand dollars currency bonds heretofore issued by said Water Company and mentioned and described in the preamble hereto, together with all interest accruing thereon from and after July 1st, 1873, as the same becomes due and payable, in all respects as if said bonds had been issued by said city in pursuance of the act and vote aforesaid; and within sixty days after such transfer and delivery said city shall pay to said Water Company the sum of two hundred and forty thousand dollars in gold coin of the United States.

Section 8. The management, supervision and control of said Water Works shall be and hereby is vested in a Board to consist of three persons, appointed to serve for the term of three years, which shall be styled "The Board of Water Commissioners," but the first three of said Commissioners shall be appointed to serve for one, two and three years respectively, from and after December 31 1873, so that thereafter one Commissioner shall be appointed each year to serve for a period of three years.

Section 9. Said Commissioners shall be appointed by the Mayor by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the members elect of the Common Council, and all vacancies in said Board shall be filled in the manner provided for making original appointments therein, and such vacancies shall be so filled for the unexpired term.

Section 10. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said Commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath, and file the same with the Auditor and Clerk, to the effect that he will well and faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law and the best of his ability; and he shall also give bond in the penal sum of twenty five thousand dollars, with not less than two sureties conditioned that said Commissioner shall well and faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law and account for and pay over and deliver, according to law, all money or other property which may come into his hands, possession, or under his control as such Commissioner. Each of said sureties shall be an inhabitant and freeholder of the county of Multnomah, and shall justify in an amount equal to the penal sum in said bond: Provided, That when there are more than two sureties on such bond they may all justify in a sum double the amount named in the bond, and the sufficiency of said sureties must be certified by the Mayor, and said bonds shall be filed with the Auditor and Clerk.

Section 11. The first Commissioners appointed under this ordinance shall be appointed as soon as practicable, and within ten days after their appointment said Commissioners shall qualify as herein prescribed, and shall organize said Board of Water Commissioners by electing one of their own number as President, to serve as such during his continuance in office as such Commissioner, and a Clerk of said Board from among their own number, or otherwise, as they may deem expedient, to serve as such during the pleasure of the Board. A majority of said Commissioners shall constitute a quorum of said Board.

Section 12. The Clerk of said Board shall keep correct minutes of its proceedings, under the direction and subject to the approval of said Board. He shall also keep proper books of account showing the receipts and expenditures of said Board in detail, and said Board shall, on or before the 10th day of January and July of each year report to the Council a detailed statement of its acts and doings for the next preceding half year ending December 31st and June 30th respectively, showing, among other things the amount of money received by it, the amount expended, and for what purpose, the amount of work done or improvements made upon said works, the amount of bonds issued and sold or disposed of by said Board, and to whom, and the amount of interest to become due on bonds already sold, during the six months next ensuing.

Section 13. The President of the Board shall preside at all meetings thereof, and shall sign and execute on behalf of said Board all contracts, orders, notes, checks or other writings when directed by it, in pursuance of its powers and authority.

Section 14. The Mayor with the consent of two thirds of the members elect of the Council may remove any one of said commissioners from office for misconduct, neglect or inefficiency in regard to the duties of his office, and whenever any of said commissioners shall absent himself from the city for a longer period than sixty days, without the leave of the Council, first had and obtained, he shall be deemed to have resigned his office.

Section 15. Said Board shall have power, and it shall be their duty from time to time, to make rules and regulations concerning the delivery and use of water within the city and the prices and rents to be paid therefor and the payment and collection of the same, and the preservation and use of pipes, hydrants, plugs and other parts of said water works and the machinery thereof.

Section 16. The city shall charge and collect such prices or rents for the use of the water aforesaid, so as to provide, if practicable, from the net income and receipts arising therefrom, for the payment of the interest on said bonds as it becomes due and also, after the year 1884, for the further payment of not less than one per centum of the principal of said bonds, and as much greater or a per centum thereof as the Council may prescribe and direct.

Section 17. The net income and receipts arising from the disposition of said water, after deducting all payments on account of interest and all expenses and charges for the distribution thereof, shall be set apart as a sinking fund, and applied, under the direction of the Council solely to the redemption of said bonds, provided, the Council may provide for the investment of said sinking fund, or any portion of it, as it may deem expedient.

Section 18. The owner and occupant of any house or tenement, shall be jointly and severally liable for the rent or price of the water taken or consumed therein, and any sum of money due for water taken or consumed in any house or tenement, shall become a lien thereon, whenever a memorandum or notice thereof shall be entered in a book to be kept by the clerk of said board for that purpose and called the "Water Lien Docket," in such manner and form as may, by rule or regulation be prescribed by said board, but no lien shall be thereby created to secure the payment of any water rent due more than six months before the entry of such notice or memorandum, and such lien may be enforced as if it were a mechanics lien.

Section 19. Said Board may issue and dispose of, not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars, of coupon bonds for the purpose of obtaining money to be used and expended as follows, and not otherwise: First—to pay said Water Company the said sum of two hundred and forty thousand dollars, as herein provided, second—to redeem or pay the sixty thousand dollars in currency bonds before mentioned and described, as the same may become due and payable; third—whenever the Council shall so direct and provide, to lay down additional and larger water mains within the city, and otherwise enlarge, change and improve the capacity, power and fitness of said water works for extinguishing and preventing fires therein, and supplying the city and all the inhabitants thereof with a sufficient and constant supply of good and wholesome water at reasonable rates. But no bonds shall be issued by said Board beyond the amount necessary to pay for said works as herein provided without the consent of the Council expressed by ordinance.

Section 20. The said bonds shall be signed by the President of said Board and countersigned by the Mayor, and be denominated "Portland Water Bonds." They shall be made payable in —— years from the date thereof, and bear interest at the rate of —— per centum per annum, payable semi annually. They shall be made payable in United States gold coin, both principal and interest, and may be disposed of at either private or public sale, but if sold at private sale, they shall not be sold at less than par value.

Section 21. Whenever said Board shall contract any indebtedness in pursuance of this ordinance and the authority herein contained, they shall issue to the person entitled to the same a voucher which shall contain a true statement of the amount of said indebtedness and the consideration therefor.

Section 22. All moneys arising from the disposition of said bonds, or water, must be deposited with the City Treasurer, and paid out upon the warrant of the Mayor attested by the Auditor, as provided in Sections 52 and 60 of the Act to incorporate the city of Portland, but said Mayor and Auditor must draw such warrant upon said moneys for the sum specified in and in payment of any voucher issued by said board as provided in Section 21 of this ordinance, and thereupon such voucher shall be surrendered to said Auditor, who shall file the same.

Section 23. Said commissioners shall receive such compensation for their services as the Council may from time to time prescribe, but the compensation of a commissioner shall not be diminished during his continuance in office, and neither of said commissioners shall hold any other office in the city government during his continuance in the office of commissioner, nor shall either of said commissioners, or the clerk of said board, be interested in any contract or expenditure authorized by this Act other than the compensation allowed him thereby, or a purchase of said bonds when sold to the highest bidder.

Section 24. Whenever the terms Auditor, Mayor or Council are used in this ordinance they shall be taken and held to mean the Auditor and Clerk, Mayor or Common Council of the City of Portland, as the case may be.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL,
San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the so-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultation FREE.
